Dear Mr. Ernst:

Enclosed in this letter you will find the statement of two boys in regard to the following man.

Name - John Walter Pajot
1307 Glen Garden Drive - Apartment 7
Newport News, Virginia 23605

Description of Man:

Age - 26 years
Height - 5' 9"
Weight - 135 lbs.
Eyes - Brown
Unmarried in 1972
Social Security - [REDACTED]

Eagle Scout as Boy - Florida
Son of Army Career Officers
Served in Army (Fort Gordon)
Student: Christopher Newport College
Employed: Juvenile Detention

The above man, it is rumored has had charges of a moral nature while in service. They were dropped upon intervention of Chaplain.

After I received the enclosed, I found this man had been meeting with a Scout Troop in Newport News. He avoided registering with unit when he would explain that he was registered on a Council level. Unit believed him and never checked. I also had him come to my office and I confronted him with the statements in letters. He asked if I could name the youngsters, I said no and posed the question if he was in doubt how many more violations of boys in unit were there.

When I asked why he didn't register, he said he couldn't because he was an Atheist. I informed him to stay away from any Scouts and units in this Council on both items and I also informed him that we would not (this Council) accept a registration. There is no doubt in my mind the charges are valid and registration or affiliate with boys should be stopped.

The parents of the two boys will not pursue the matter with authorities, so I believe the matter at this point is closed.

The information above is all I can find except he grew up as a military dependent and is use to travel and could show up anywhere, however at present is living with his grandparents.

If anymore is needed, I will cooperate.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Jordan,

Regarding actions of John Pajot on three individual camping trip. The first trip I was awoken by Mr Pajot in my sleeping bag with me playing with my penis. On the second trip the something happened and he also sucked on it. And on the third trip the same thing happened as the second trip but he told to get me to play with him. During these episodes I knew this was wrong but I was afraid to tell in fear I would be questioned but when my father questioned me I told the truth about what happened

Sincerely
